Peace in Europe.—By the foreign news it will be seen that the Emperors of France and Austria have concluded a peace. The conditions of the treaty are such as do not meet public expectations, and are not honorable to either of the parties. Austria cedes Lombardy, which is to be attached to Sardinia; but retains Venetia. Napoleon falsifies all the pledges he made to liberate Italy, and leaves it, with the exception of Lombardy, as it was before. Garibaldi, who has fought so heroically for the independence of his native land, is deceived; and Kosuth and the Hungarians who were preparing to rescue their country from the Austrian grasp, are left in the lurch, and have only been used as cat's paws to bring Austria to terms. The scheme of an Italian confederation, with the Pope as its nominal head, is a magnificent humbug. His Holiness is in the hands of the French; he is stripped of all political power, and is a mere puppet in the hands of Napoleon, who will hereafter have the control of Italy. The people of Italy gain nothing; they are only transferred from the tyranny of Austria to that of France. All Napoleon's fine promises of intervention for Italian independence and his newborn zeal in the cause of human freedom prove delusive. He has no sympathy with the masses; his guiding star is selfish ambition, and under the specious guise of being the political regenerator of Europe, he has only sought his own aggrandisement.

Sardinia does not appear even to have been consulted in the matter, by its illustrious ally. The peace is made by Napoleon and Francis Joseph, without Victor Emmanuel, who is the true hero of the war, having any participation in its arrangement. Such a peace is delusive and cannot be permanent. All appear surprised and disgusted with its conditions, and it will lead to new complications and difficulties, which will again ere long light up the torch of discord and set the whole of Europe in a flame.

A New Constitution.—The question of calling a convention to amend the constitution is beginning to be agitated. The last Legislature authorized a vote to be taken at the ensuing election, to decide whether such a convention should be called.

We are decidedly opposed to the project, and believe it would work an injury to the state, and perhaps result in making a more objectionable constitution than we now live under. We look on the whole matter as a scheme of designing men to further their own designs, and get such provisions in the new constitution as would suit their individual interests or fancies. The abolitionists wish to remove the restrictions against negroes, and would vote for the convention in hopes of succeeding in their favorite hobby. The know nothing's would support it for the sake of incorporating the Massachusetts clause against naturalized voters. The ultra temperance men in hopes of securing the return, co-operation, and seizure of liquor. Others would do it to get rid of the restriction against local legislation. All who with any change will unite in the project, and, if successful, may by log-rolling and bargaining succeed in getting all their schemes engrafted on the new constitution, and make such an instrument as would be in the highest degree unjust and objectionable to all moderate and temperate men. The Constitution might, no doubt, be amended for the better in several particulars, and the true way of amending is that pointed out in the instrument itself. Let the Legislature submit to the people a series of amendments, and let it be voted on each one separately. The voters can then accept such as they may like. If, on the contrary, a new convention is called, and a new Constitution framed, it will be submitted to them in gross, and they will be compelled to accept all or reject all—for the purpose of getting a few good provisions they may be compelled or be induced to take a great many bad ones.

The whole thing is a scheme on the part of Black Republicans, Maine Law Men, Know Nothings, and trading politicians generally; and as such should be opposed by every democrat and voted down by all good citizens.

Not a Candidate.—We announced in our last that the Pittsburgh Post, in an editorial article, strongly recommended that Mr. Buchanan should be renominated for the Presidency by the Charleston convention, as the most available candidate. The opposition eagerly circulated the report that Mr. Buchanan authorized the publication, and was anxiously seeking a re-election. There was not the least foundation for the surmise. Mr. Buchanan does not seek a renomination, nor do we believe he would accept it if tendered, unless it could be clearly demonstrated that his acceptance was essential to the success of the democratic party. In that case we presume he might waive his objections, and consent to retain the offices of four years longer. The Bedford (Pa.) Gazette of the 28th announces authoritatively that Mr. Buchanan will not be a candidate for renomination by the Charleston convention.

The New Haven Register, in alluding to the new born zeal of the opposition in behalf of our naturalized citizens abroad, remarks that "it is vastly easier for them to complain of the way foreign nations treat our naturalized citizens than to show them the smallest courtesy or favor at home." It is an easy matter for them to deplore the risks which attend the travel in Europe of naturalized citizens of the United States; but they have forgotten the bloody scenes enacted in Baltimore, Louisville, New Orleans, and elsewhere on our own soil, where these same foreign voters, for whom they now express so much affliction, were butchered in cold blood by the score and shot down like dogs for daring to vote the Democratic ticket!

Caught in a Trap.—The Kansas Constitutional Convention is now in session. A democratic delegate proposed a clause that no negro or mulatto should be allowed to come into or settle in the state after the adoption of the constitution. This of course was opposed by the republicans, who denounced it bitterly as a democratic pro-slavery move, and the democrats as pro-slavery, hating negroes and mulattoes.

The measure was at once rejected, as too ripe for consideration. It now appears that the obnoxious clause was copied verbatim by the waggish introducer from the Topeka Constitution, got up and formed by the republicans themselves, and all the harsh things they have said about it and its advocates belong justly to their own party! This was a cruel hoax on the bigger living black republicans.

COMPARET & HUBERT's new Steam Fleuning Mill, is nearly completed. The engine has already been put in motion, and found to work like a clock. In ten or twelve days more the millwright's work will be completed, and the mill ready for operation. It will be one of the finest mills in the state, creditable to our city, which already enjoys so high a reputation for its enterprising owners and the skillful mechanics.

S. Stiles who constructed it.

Prosecuting Attorney.—As it can scarcely be necessary to hold a district convention for the purpose of nominating a candidate for Prosecuting Attorney of the 10th Circuit, the Gothen Democrat suggests that the Democratic Central Committee of the 10th Cong. District, with the Central Committees of Adams and Wells, select the candidate. A good move, which we cordially second.

By the way, would not the same course in regard to District Attorney for the Allen and Adams Common Pleas, be advisable?

We notice the Goshen Democrat gives a list of the Central Committee, but we do not find any mention from Allen Co. How is this? We had an impression that this county was in the 10th district, and that F. P. Randall represented it in the Central Committee.

New Court House.—On Tuesday the Allen County Commissioners met to receive plans for the New Court House. Several very well got up plans were offered, and after a long deliberation the commissioners selected two which appeared to approach nearest to what was required.

One of these, by E. May, of Indianapolis, was a splendid fire-proof building, with a lofty dome and lookout gallery, and was universally admired. The other was by our fellow citizen S. M. Ellatrick, which though not so imposing a structure externally, was thought to have some advantages in its interior arrangements. It was finally resolved to purchase both designs, and have the two architects jointly make a plan embracing the advantages of both, and submit it to the commissioners on the 12th August next.

Alleged Poisoning Case.—Some excitement has been caused in the western part of the city, by the alleged attempt of a woman to poison the well of a neighbor with whom she had some difficulty. The accused was heard to say that she would pour flour in the well, and make her neighbor believe it was poison. Soon after white substance was discovered in the well, and the woman was arrested on the charge of attempting to poison. A portion of the powder which was spilled on the curb was produced in evidence, but on being submitted to chemical tests no trace of poison could be discovered. After a patient investigation of the charge before Justice Stevens, the accused was discharged.

The whole affair probably was nothing more than a woman's quarrel between two neighbors, and one sought to scare or annoy the other by placing some harmless substance in the well.

Count Arez has been charged with the formation of a new Cabinet.

Letters from Paris note much discontent there concerning the terms of Peace, although the Peace itself still suffered to remain in Italy, and called for the expulsion of the petty Italian Princes who are but confederates of Austria.

Napoleon on his arrival in France, would proceed direct to St. Cloud, deferring his official entry in Paris until he makes it at the head of the army.

The Emperor and the King of Sardinia entered Turin on the 15th, amid the enthusiastic acclamations of the people.

The Austrian correspondence officially announces the conditions of the treaty of peace as thus: Austria and France will support the formation of an Italian Confederation; Lombardy as far as the line of the Mincio to be given up; Mantua, Peschiera, and the whole of Venetia remain in the possession of Austria; the Prince of Tuscany and Modena return to their states; a universal amnesty granted to all.

The Vienna correspondent of the London Times says:—Three applications were made by Napoleon to Austria before she would consent.

Outreurs were made direct by Napoleon for the purpose of preventing the mediation of neutrals.

The same correspondent says that the Pope was burnt in effigy at Milan, and unfriendly feelings existed between Napoleon and Victor Emmanuel. The latter had issued a proclamation to the people of Lombardy, announcing their annexation to Sardinia according to their own desire many times expressed, and his determination to ameliorate their political condition.

Victor Emmanuel entered Milan on the 13th, and the enthusiastic plaudits of the citizens.

It is thought that the French army had committed its counterpart.

It was thought probable that the division of Cardinal Antonelli would follow this state of affairs.

It was rumored that Garibaldi was about to issue a proclamation, and it was doubt full whether he would lay down his arms.

In the 11th inst., the formation of the Hungarian legion had proceeded prosperously five thousand men had joined.

A letter from Ro. dated the 8th inst., says that the Pope sent an urgent letter to Napoleon, announcing his determination to demand a special reading the bill abolishing the Church rates by a vote of 263 to 193. Both houses discussed the treaty of peace.

The Treaty with Mexico.

NEW YORK, July 26.—The Times Washington correspondent says:—The draft of a treaty just sent by Hon. Robert McLean, to be submitted to our Government, contains provisions of the very highest importance to this country. I am fortunately enabled to furnish you with a summary of the most striking stipulations, which are as follows:

Lord J. Russell said that France had made no extraordinary preparations, therefore England had demanded no explanations.

The advice of the North Briton is the construction of constitutions or party platforms, yet I will not for a difference of opinion about non-essential and often impracticable issues, forsake or condemn the brave Northern Democrat, who a hundred times combated for the rights of my section, against the attacks and prejudices of his own, and when he seeks honorably to vindicate his ambition, he shall have all the help I can give him to obtain it.

FEAR OF THE NORTH BRITON.

IMPORTANT NEWS.

PEACE DECLARED!

FURTHER POINT, July 21.—There are now 535 convicts confined in the State Prison at Jeffersonville—at least 150 more than is suitable accommodations for. It certainly seems time for the Governor to cease throwing obstacles in the way of the construction of a new prison.

A Voice from Georgia.—The Hon. A. C. Walker, who was nominated to succeed Hon. A. Stephens, in the 8th Congressional District in Georgia, declines the honor in a very plain and interesting letter, whom which we make the following extract:

Mr. Buchanan advocates a revision of the tariff, and the construction of a railroad to the Pacific. I will not for that reason his administration a failure; although I may not agree with him. If he sees fit to attempt to castigate Judge Douglas for proving refractory, and setting up for himself, I would do the same in his place, and yet in my judgment, policy and patriotism demand that Judge Douglas should be the next candidate for the Presidency. I speak for myself alone.

In short, while no latitudinarian in the construction of constitutions or party platforms, yet

I will not for a difference of opinion about non-essential and often impracticable issues, forsake or condemn the brave Northern Democrat, who a hundred times combated for the rights of my section, against the attacks and prejudices of his own, and when he seeks honorably to vindicate his ambition, he shall have all the help I can give him to obtain it.

It is reported that Kosuth was to propose a constitutional government for Hungary.

The following is a copy of the telegram from Napoleon to the Empress Eugenie, announcing that peace had been concluded:

"VELLICO, July 11th.—A treaty of Peace has been signed between the Emperor of Austria and myself on the following basis:—The Italian Confederacy is to be under the Honorable protection of the Pope. Austria concedes Lombardy, which in turn grants Austria to Sardinia. Austria retains her right to cover Venetia."

The steamer left Liverpool before the effect of this news had time to develop.

The Paris Advertiser in explaining the circumstances attending the Armistice, says the great neutral powers exchanged communications with the belligerents, offering mediation, but was unsuccessful until the French fleet was about to commence hostilities against Venice, and a conflict before Verona was imminent, when Napoleon, anxious to prevent further bloodshed, ascertained the disposition of the Emperor of Austria.

Finding him willing, an Armistice was concluded. Two Empires had an interview on the 11th, at Paris.

The London Times claims that England brought about the Armistice. Other authorities give the credit to Prussia.

The Verona telegram says the Armistice was concluded only after repeated requests from the French and Austria had obtained all she had asked for.

Peace in Europe—By the foreign news it will be seen that the Empress of France and Austria have concluded a peace. The conditions of the treaty are such as do not meet public expectations, and are not honorable to either of the parties. Austria cedes Lombardy, which is to be attached to Sardinia; but retains Venice. Napoleon satisfies all the pledges he made to liberate Italy, and leaves it with the exception of Lombardy, as it was before. Garibaldi, who has fought so heroically for the independence of his native land, is deserted; and Rossi and the Hungarians who were preparing to rescue their country from the Austrian grasp, are left in the lurch, and have only been used as cat's-paws to bring Austria to terms. The scheme of an Italian confederation, with the Pope as its nominal head, is a magnificent bungle. His Holiness is in the hands of the French; he is stripped of all political power, and is a mere puppet in the hands of Napoleon, who will hereafter have the control of Italy. The people of Italy gain nothing; they are only transferred from the tyranny of Austria to that of France. All Napoleon's fine promises of intervention for Italian independence and his newborn zeal in the cause of human freedom prove deceptive. He has no sympathy with the masses; his guiding star is selfish ambition, and under the specious guise of being the political regenerator of Europe, he has only sought his own aggrandizement.

Sardinia does not appear even to have been consulted in the matter, by its illustrious ally. The peace is made by Napoleon and Francis Joseph, without Victor Emmanuel, who is the true hero of the war, having any participation in its arrangement. Such a peace is defective and cannot be permanent. All appear surprised and disgusted with its conditions, and it will lead to new complications and difficulties, which will again end long fitful of the torch of discord and set the whole of Europe in a flame.

A New Constitution—The question of calling a convention to amend the constitution is beginning to be agitated. The last Legislature authorized a vote to be taken at the ensuing election, to decide whether such a convention should be called.

We are decidedly opposed to the project, and believe it would work an injury to the state, and perhaps result in making a more objectionable constitution than we now live under. We look on the whole matter as a scheme of designing men to further their own designs, and get such provisions in the new constitution as would suit their individual interests or fancies. The abolitionists wish to remove the restrictions against negroes, and would vote for the convention in hopes of succeeding in their favorite hobby. The know-nothings would support it for the sake of incorporating the Massachusetts clause against naturalized voters. The ultra temperance men in hopes of securing the recall, confiscation, and seizure of liquor. Others would do it to get rid of the restriction against local legislation. All who wish any change will unite in the project, and, if successful, may by log-rolling and bargaining succeed in getting all their schemes engrossed in the new constitution, and make such an instrument as would be in the highest degree unjust and objectionable to all moderate and temperate men. The Constitution might, or doubt, be amended for the better in several particulars, and the true way of amending is that pointed out in the instrument itself. Let the legislature submit to the people a series of amendments, and let a vote be taken on each respectively. The voters can then accept such as they may like. If, on the contrary, a new Constitution is called and a new Constitution framed, it will be submitted to them in gross, and yet be compelled to accept all or reject all—for the purpose of getting a few good provisions they may be compelled to or induced to take a great many bad ones.

The whole thing is a scheme on the part of Black Republicans, Main Law Men, Know Nothing, and other trading politicians generally; and such should be opposed by every decent and educated man.

Not a Candidate—We announced in our last that the Pittsburg Post, in an editorial article, strongly recommended that Mr. Buchanan should be recommended for the Presidency by the Charleston convention, as the most available candidate. The opposition eagerly circulated the report that Mr. Buchanan authorized the publication, and was unusually seeking a re-election. There was not the least foundation for the rumour. Mr. Buchanan does not seek a renomination, nor do we believe he would, except if induced, unless it could be clearly demonstrated that his acceptance was essential to the success of the democratic party. In that case we presume he might waive his objections, and consent to retain the offices four years longer. The Bedford (Pa.) Gazette of the 28th announces authoritatively that Mr. Buchanan will not be a candidate for renomination by the Charleston convention.

For the New Haven Register, in alluding to the new horse seal of the Opposites in behalf of our naturalized citizens abroad, remarks that "it is vastly easier for them to complain of the way foreign nations treat our naturalized citizens, than to show them the smallest courtesy or favor here at home. It is an easy matter for them to deplore the risks which attend the travels in Europe of naturalized citizens of the United States; but they have forgotten the bloody scenes enacted in Baltimore, Louisville, New Orleans, and elsewhere on our own soil, where these same foreign visitors, for whom they now express so much affection, were butchered in cold blood by the scoundrels and dandies like dogs, for daring to vote the Democratic ticket."

Cought in a Trap—The Kansas Constitutional Convention is now in session. A democratic delegate proposed a clause that no negro or mulatto should be allowed to come into or settle in the state after the adoption of the constitution. This clause was opposed by the republicans, who denounced it bitterly as a democratic pro-slavery move, and the democrats as pro-slavery, nigger hating dandies and mimics of the south. The measure was almost rejected, as too vile for consideration. It now appears that the abominous clause was copied verbatim by the waggish introducer from the Texan Constitution, got up and forced by the republicans themselves, and all the harsh things they have said about it and its advocates being justly to their own party! This was a cruel hoax on the bigger loving black republicans.

Concord & Everett's new Steam Flouring Mill, is nearly completed. The engine has already been put in motion, and found to work like a clock. In ten or twelve days more the mill-wright's work will be completed, and the mill ready for operation. It will be one of the finest mills in the state, creditable to our city, which already enjoys so high a reputation for its superior brands of flour, and an honor to the enterprising owners and the skillful mechanic S. Sitton, who constructed it.

Prosecuting Attorney—As it can scarcely be necessary to hold a district convention for the purpose of nominating a candidate for Prosecuting Attorney of the 10th Circuit, the Gorham Committee suggests that the Democratic Central Committee of the 10th Cong. District, with the Central Committees of Adams and Wells, select the candidate. A good move, which we cordially second.

By the way, would not the same course be taken by the Foreign Attorney for the Allegan and Adams County Common Pleas, as desirable?

We notice the Gorham Committee gives a list of the Central Committee, but we do not find another from Allen Co. How is this? We had an impression that this county was in the 10th district, and that F. P. Randall represented it in the Central Committee.

New Court House—On Tuesday the Allen County Commissioners met to receive plans for the New Court House. Several very well got up plans were offered, and after a long deliberation the commissioners selected two which appeared to the commissioners next to what was required. One of these, by E. May, of Indianapolis, was a grandiose fire-proof building, with a lofty dome and look-out gallery, and was universally admired. The other was by our fellow citizen S. McElroy, which though not so imposing a structure externally, was thought to have some advantages in its interior arrangements. It was finally resolved to purchase both designs, and have the two architects jointly make over plans embracing the advantages of both, and submit it to the commissioners on the 12th August next.

Alleged Poisoning Case—Some excitement has been created in the western part of the city, by the alleged attempt of a woman to poison the wife of a neighbor with whom she had some difficulty. The accused was heard to say that she would put flour in the well, and make her neighbor believe it was poison. Soon after this, a woman was discovered in the well, and the woman was arrested on the charge of attempting to poison. A portion of the powder which was spilled on the earth was produced in evidence, and on being submitted to chemical tests no trace of poison could be discovered. After a patient investigation of the charge before Justice Stevens, the accused was discharged.

The whole affair probably was nothing more than a woman's quarrel between two neighbors, and one sought to scare or annoy the other by placing some harmless substance in the well.

No poison more deadly than that distilled from their tongue was used. Some may think this indeed enough; but since the abolition of the old common law providing ducking stools for scolding women, we believe there is no legal punishment for that particular kind of poisoning.

The Weather—is now cool and pleasant, but the drought continues, and corn, potatoes, and garden vegetables suffer severely. Unless we have rain soon, these crops will be seriously injured.

In the central, western, and south-eastern parts of this state, and in northern and central Ohio, the complaints of drought are general and most discouraging.

"There are now 3,500 convicts confined in the State Prison of Jefferson,"—at least 1,500 more than it has suitable accommodations for, the existing terms of peace, although the Peace Officers areழ to certainly secure time for the Governor to cause the removal of the condemned to the prison of the new prison.

A Voice from Georgia—The Hon. A. C. Walker, who was nominated to succeed Hon. J. S. Stephens, in the 5th Congressional District of Georgia, declines the honor in a very plain and interesting letter, whom which we make the following extract:

"It is [Buchanan] advocates a revision of the tariff, or the construction of a railroad to the Pacific, I will not for that pronounce his administration a failure although I may and ought to. If he fails to attempt to negotiate a peaceful though proving refractory, and acting up to his word, I will then nominate him, and get my judgment, policy and practice demand that Judge Douglass should be the next candidate for the Presidency. I speak for myself alone."

In short, while in advocating the construction of constitutions or party platforms, not for a difference of opinion about most important and often impeachable issues, forsake or condemn the "lame Northern Democrat," who a hundred times combated for the rights of my section, against the attacks and prejudices of his own, and when he seeks reelection, to win the votes of his machine, he shall have all the help I can give him to obtain it.

IMPORTANT NEWS.

PEACE DECLARED!

PARTHER POST, July 24.

The steamer Narcissus, from Liverpool on the 13th inst., and bound in Quebec, has been intercepted off this point and a most important batch of news obtained.

The advice by the North Briton is a day later than those furnished by the steamer Alfred, and is of slightly importance, as far as the political and financial world of view.

A treatise of the Roman Catholic and Protestant Churches and Sardinia has already been published.

The pretensions are, that an Italian Constitution is to be formed under the Habsburg government.

The House of Commons passed a second reading the bill holding the Church in trust for the Pope on the 21st.

Bloodhounds German Bitter, prepared and sold by Dr. Jackson, at the German Medical Store, 418 Arch Street, Philadelphia, daily increase in their well-deserved celebrity for the cure of all diseases arising from derangement of the liver. These Bitters have indeed, proved a blessing to the ill-fated, who show their gratitude by the most flattering testimonials. Their medicine has established for itself many distinguished competitors, however, with their schemes, or reducing their promises, cannot reach it. It gained the public confidence by the numerous benefits that have been derived from it, and will ever retain its position in the market.

Have you got any old CLOTHES, and see our merchandise, which was returned shortly after the landing of the PIONEERS. And there's our
H E N ' S N E S T

It is of the "best style," and not only want a "nest," but wish to keep it. So bring along your EGGS. If you want Molasses, Sugar, Coffee, Tea, Rice, Fish &c.
you can always find the best quality in our grocery, and at the lowest possible price.

Our City Clothiers
of course need not be told that our "Home" grocery will make their houses roundly full to be sure, but that it is the "right" thing, and we are glad to accommodate.

All articles shipped in this house, and not found representative, may be returned and the money refunded.

Don't forget the place—LaGrange Brown's old stand corner Lard and Pease streets.
